NOTICE OF THE BOARD

On October 12, 2016, the Board issued a ruling [CB-CDA 2016-085] dealing with deficiency motions in the above matter. In that ruling, the Board ordered that certain answers to interrogatories from the Collectives to Stingray be filed with it, as follows.

Q21: [...] “Once no further deficiency motion in relation to Q21 is made, the Collectives shall file the response, including all documents, with the Board.”

Q25: [...] “Once no further deficiency motion in relation to Q25 is made, the Collectives shall file the response, and any agreements, with the Board.”

Q31: [...] “Once no further deficiency motion in relation to Q31 is made, the Collectives shall file the response, including all documents, with the Board.”

Q81: [...] “Once no further deficiency motion in relation to Q81 is made, the Collectives shall file the agreements, including those with SoundExchange, with the Board.”

The Board has received no filings in regards of these four interrogatories.

In respect of each of the four questions, the Collectives shall file either:

- (a) the information ordered in the rulings quoted above; or
- (b) an update specifying the progress of Stingray in answering the question and when the Collectives expect to be able to file the information ordered in the ruling quoted above.

The Collectives shall respond no later than Monday, January 23, 2017.
