Dear Mr. McDougall,

The Notice of the Board dated September 12, 2016 required that the Collectives report to the Board regarding the status of their negotiations to settle the allocation of royalties by no later than November 10, 2016.

Accordingly, on behalf of all Collectives, FWS reports as follows:

Following FWS' previous report on September 9, 2016, FWS received additional title resolutions from the Collectives that resolved approximately 44% of the disputes that were then outstanding. Out of over 31,000 program titles in the viewing study, only 3,397 titles (approximately 11%) currently remain in dispute, and 707 of those conflicts involve a relatively small partial claim to the titles in question (amounting to less than 20% of the title's value).

FWS was able to distribute updated conflict title data to the collectives on October 28, 2016, and has requested that Collectives provide it with their further title conflict resolutions by the end of November. FWS expects that further conflict tables can be distributed by mid-December, and can serve as a basis for further discussions among the collectives.

Since the holiday season will likely slow down the discussions among the collectives, FWS proposes to report back to the Board by January 31, 2017. The collectives of course reserve all of their rights in connection with the allocation, including the right to object to the viewing study as the basis for the allocation.
