UNLOCATABLE COPYRIGHT OWNERS

Non-exclusive licence issued to Darrell Knight, Calgary, Alberta, authorizing the reproduction of a book

Pursuant to the provisions of subsection 77(1) of the Copyright Act, the Copyright Board grants a licence to Darrell Knight, as follows:

(1) The licence authorizes the reproduction of the book entitled “History of the Thirty-First Battalion C.E.F.” (material compiled and assembled by H.C. Singer; final revision and writing by A.A. Peebles), bound by Knights Bindery Limited and published in 1939.

No more than 1,000 copies of the book shall be reproduced.

This licence does not release the licensee from the obligation to obtain permission for any other use not covered by this licence.

(2) The licence expires on December 31, 2007. The authorized reproduction must therefore be completed by that date.

(3) The licence is non-exclusive and valid only in Canada. For other countries, it is the law of that country that applies.

(4) The licensee will pay $650 to Access Copyright, The Canadian Copyright Licensing Agency, who may dispose of the said amount as it sees fit for the general benefit of its members. Access Copyright undertakes, however, to reimburse the amount to any person who establishes, before December 31, 2012, ownership of the copyright of the work covered by this licence.

The licensee shall ensure that the following credit is prominently presented:

[“History of the Thirty-First Battalion’. Material compiled and assembled by H.C. Singer. Revision and writing by A.A. Peebles. Used under a non-exclusive licence issued by the Copyright Board of Canada in cooperation with Access Copyright, The Canadian Copyright Licensing Agency.”]

(5) The coming into force of this licence is conditional on the filing with the Board of a receipt from Access Copyright for the amount of the royalty specified in the licence, accompanied by Access Copyright's undertaking to comply with the conditions set out in paragraph (4) above.
