Pursuant to the provisions of subsection 77(1) of the Copyright Act, the Copyright Board grants a licence to Marilynne Feeney, as follows:

The licensee shall affix on each copy made before this licence is issued that has yet to be sold or distributed, a label with the above credit on the page conveying copyright information.

With respect to reproductions of the book, the licensee shall also attribute authorship of a work where it has been established.

- (8) With respect to the following works, the licensee shall pay in advance royalties to Access Copyright, The Canadian Copyright Licensing Agency, in the amount of 1¢ per work, per copy (or a total of $125.16 for 7 works × 1¢ × 1,788 copies):

Access Copyright may dispose of the said amount as it sees fit for the general benefit of its members. It undertakes, however, to reimburse the amount to any person who establishes ownership of copyright no later than five years following the date at which the work enters the public domain.

(9) With respect to the remainder of the works, the licensee shall pay the sum of 1¢ per work, per copy, to any person who has not already authorized the contemplated use and who establishes ownership of the copyright in a work covered by this licence no later than five years following the date at which the work enters the public domain.

(10) The coming into force of this licence is conditional on Access Copyright filing with the Board the receipt of the amount of the royalties specified in the licence and its undertaking to comply with the conditions set out in paragraph (8).

(11) In addition, this licence is conditional on the licensee's undertaking to comply with the conditions set out in sections (7), (8) and (9).
